In the middle of designing this collection, I had the occasion to drive through the farmlands and blooming orchards of Northern California on my way to teach a seminar. Somewhere far along the backroads, without another soul in sight, I started dreaming of fruit stands and jams, of summer flowers and dresses billowing in the summer winds. This collection makes me think of that kind of farmland summer and even though I have never lived on a farm, I long to be a farm girl at heart.
